the one i think it would be is the only with polo on and it says "N6" which I'm geussign they mean 6N and says 1995-1997? I have the standard central locking pump on my 6n Mk4, (which i fixed today due to water damage), but it does not have a remote, so what your speaking of would be perfect; I've heard the locks on Mk4s are easy to break into so its best to de-lock them?
