In the late-19th and 20th centuries, composers produced a wealth of innovative piano music, venturing in new directions and seeking new sounds. The music produced during those transitional years is considered "20th-century music." Works by 37 composers are included in this comprehensive survey of 20th-century piano music; they range in difficulty from intermediate through early-advanced levels and cover the widest range of styles and idioms from that genre. Dr. Hinson has provided historical and biographical background and performance notes.

and other works. The introductory pages discuss symbolist poetry, French Impressionist painters and Debussy's musical style. A variety of photographs taken throughout the composer's life are also included.

Debussy was not referring to "arabesque" in the form of a ballet term but rather to the meaning of "arabesque" as a piece with exquisite detail and clear repetitions of ideas and artistic balance. These pieces were written in 1888 during Debussy's earliest compositional period.

A beautiful collection of core repertoire from the great composers, presented in progressive order. Selected by pianist Melanie Spanswick, it is ideal

The Debussy volume of the 'Schott Piano Collection' series has been among the standard works of piano lessons for a long time, containing a careful selection of Debussy's major piano works in chronological order, ranging from the 'Danse bohémienne', written at the age of eighteen, to a number of the Préludes composed between 1910 and 1913. Two important and popular works have been added to this expanded new edition: 'Clair de lune' from the 'Suite Bergamasque', and the Prélude 'Des pas sur la neige'. As a result, the new edition is even better suited to the
