Davie Jones—an ugly duckling growing up in small-town Mississippi with a mother who couldn't get any meaner—is positive her life couldn't be any worse. Just when she's resigned herself to her fate, she sees a movie that will change her life—Sixteen Candles. But in her case, life doesn't imitate art. Tormented in school and hopelessly in unrequited love with a handsome football player, Davie finds it bittersweet to dream of Molly Ringwald endings. When a cruel school prank goes too far, Davie leaves the life she knows and reinvents herself in the glittery world of Hollywood—as a beautiful and successful lounge singer. Just as she's about to ride off into the L.A. sunset, the past comes back with a vengeance, threatening to crush Davie's dreams—and break her heart again. With wholly original characters and a cinematic storyline, 32 Candles introduces Ernessa T. Carter, a new voice in fiction with smarts, attitude, and sassiness to spare.

"This course examines not only the career of Alexander but also the historical, military, and social conditions that produced this greatest of conquerors. We journey through the world that Alexander inherited, the world that he manipulated, and the world that he left in his wake. In the process, we peel back centuries of misrepresentations and mythologies to discover what we can about the man behind the name"—Course guidebook cover, p.[4].

A set of twins catches our heroes by surprise and trap Goku and Hakkai in their magical gourd. Sanzo and Gojyo set off on a journey to find the twins and free their friends and discover that the twins are working for a mysterious figure who is due for some punishment. Will their justice be swift enough or will they have to swallow a bitter pill?
