He turned onto the street and headed in the direction of my house. His car slowed down, coasted, and finally stopped; but not at my house! He had pulled up to the curb that was located across from my house, and the driveway where he had pulled into hours earlier to pick me up for our date. Where he had knocked on the door and I greeted him after taking the time to make myself look nice. Although I didn't really feel any attraction for this guy, I was looking forward to us having a fun time. Now, hours later, we are in front of my home; but on the wrong side of the street. He is just dropping me off like a bag of potatoes, and I think I am in some stage of shock! Finally, after the blood came back to my brain, I turned and looked at him with total disbelief of the situation that was now happening. I wasn't sure what I was supposed to do or say. Finally, after getting all my emotions under control, I looked at him and managed to say, "Are you kidding me?" He did not speak nor look at me but just stared straight ahead holding on with both hands to the steering wheel. I'm sure my whole body was now in a state of utter shock and total confusion. Even though I wasn't certain of what the right thing was to say at that moment, I did know without a moment of doubt that I had to get out of the car. With as much sweetness as I could gather up at that moment, while still in my seat, I turned towards him, looked right at him, or at least to the side of his head since he still wouldn't look at me; and said, "Well you just have a nice afternoon."

To keep loneliness and despondency at bay, having a companion, going out, and having pleasurable or exciting experiences are very crucial in the lives of senior singles; otherwise, you can quickly lapse into loneliness and despondency. While online dating sites provide avenues for finding a soul mate, you may not be completely sure of how to go dating online, how to reply properly to a request just received, or even how to begin a conversation. Senior Dating Advice and Tips assist senior singles who wish to date online to be well informed of both the pitfalls associated with online dating and how to make the best of senior dating online.

Who likes being called a "Senior Citizen"? Not many. Even though the reality of age may demand the description, there is a more accurate way to speak of many older people who find themselves alone. Author Samantha Landy prefers the phrase Savvy Senior Singles for those who are mature but still very much young at heart and living without a partner. Her practical insights give you the nudge needed to live a successfully fulfilling second-half of life.

Table for Two Table for Two is a humorous guide for older men and women who are not yet ready to give up on finding love. Its only real purpose is to share a laugh with its readers. It is a series of first dates. Each date is a disaster for one reason or another. The advice given is more likely to be funny than helpful. In Naked at Our Age, women and men, coupled and single, straight and gay talk candidly about how their sex lives and relationships have changed with age, and about how they see themselves, their partners, or their single life. Many of them are having unsatisfying sex, or no sex at all, and are seeking advice. Price presents their personal stories, and follows up with tips from sex therapists, health professionals, counselors, sex educators, and other knowledgeable experts. Naked at Our Age is an entertaining and indispensable guide to handling and understanding the issues of senior sex and relationships.

Technically, a person is considered a senior citizen when they reach the age of 65. However, that's not always the way the general public feels – especially those who have hit the age of 50. To some people, this might send them into spasms of denial. After all, how can you be 60 when you still feel 30 in your mind? But, really, that's a good way to think. It's been said many, many times that age is simply a number – it's a state of mind how old you actually are! If you're over 50 years old, you've likely heard many times by now that you're over the hill. What started this rumor that once you've reached the middle of your life, it's all downhill from there? Today's baby-boomers will stop at nothing to put an end to this rumor. They'll prove that the over 50 crowd is stronger and smarter than ever. Those over age 50 are more physically active than ever. Many have a decent amount of disposable income. They are politically active, culturally motivated and in tune with modern trends. Mark Twain once said "Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter." Truer words, I think, have never been spoken! So you're a senior citizen – so what! Life doesn't have to be relegated to planting flowers and rocking on your front porch talking about the good old days. Believe me; the good old days are just starting!

Some 12 million women have found happiness with older men - and you could be next. Dating the Older Man helps women get over all the judgment that comes with older/younger unions. Written by Dr. Laura Grashow and Dr. Belisa Vranich, the New York Daily News's "Dear Doctor" columnist, this book deals with everything younger women coupled with older men go through on a daily basis. Complete with case studies and easy-to-reference Q&As, this book is the go-to guide for any younger woman looking to make her romance last.
