Teeline Word Groupings Flashcards | Quizlet

I'm in the middle of unit 5 of the "Teeline Gold Course Book", where the first "advanced" features of Teeline are introduced: word groupings. Common phrases like "I am", "You will be", but even "We should be able to" are written as a single outline. (To be exact, phrases with "... be able to" are written in two parts: word grouping and a full vowel a close to it.)

"Advanced" Teeline: first word groupings - Steno-Blog

Word groupings are a valuable tool for journalists when writing Teeline Shorthand. If they do not come to mind immediately, write the outline in full but start building up a repertoire by reading through your shorthand with a view to devise possible groupings, create a grouping and practice until they become automatic.

Writing style Teeline shorthand is a streamlined way to transcribe the spoken word quickly by removing unnecessary letters from words and making the letters themselves faster to write. Vowels are often removed when they are not the first or last letter of a word, and silent letters are also ignored.

Teeline Shorthand - Wikipedia

Teeline Shorthand is a quick and flexible shorthand system. The level of theory to learn is a lot less compared to other systems and you are also encouraged to create your own ideas - it is your shorthand and for you to use and feel happy with.

Teeline Shorthand - The Lewis College Hub

It is possible to write most words using basic Teeline theory, which consists of the alphabet and vowel indicators, but learning advanced Teeline theory allows users to increase their speed to well in excess of 100 words per minute. Examples of Teeline theory include blending of letters (such as CM, CN and PL) and the R principle. Doubling is also commonly used in Teeline - this involves lengthening the outlines for D, T, L, M and W to indicate that an R comes after these outlines - for ...

An alphabetical list of common word groupings which encourages students to use more word groupings when taking shorthand dictation. It also explains the value of word groupings in building up speed and outlines grouping principles.

For the most efficient and safest outline, turn to the Teeline Gold Word List. In alphabetical order it contains recommended Teeline outlines for over 12,000 words - the sort of words that might be expected to appear frequently in non-technical material.

This introductory book contains sufficient theory to lay the foundation for higher speeds.

The flexible Teeline system of shorthand is based on the English alphabet, and gives students scope for developing their own style of writing. This student pack consists of one copy of each of three "Teeline Gold" books - the course book, the workbook and the word list.

Following on from the "Teeline Gold Course Book", this is intended to develop students' speed. The book should enable teachers to structure their classes, once they have introduced the basic Teeline theory, by reviewing and extending the theory. It also develops the theory of word groupings.

This is the companion to the "Teeline Gold Course Book". Linked chapter-by-chapter it provides additional Teeline practice material and longhand transcription to reinforce classroom learning, improve outline and develop speed.

An alternative course book containing all the Teeline theory offering a complete course for students and teachers. it is divided into small learning units with a wide range of examples and exercises at each stage.

Contains 150 dictation passages ranging in length from 80 to 360 words with outlines for selected words and word groupings at the start of each passage. The book also gives advice on different methods of dictation to help solve problems such as students being stuck on a speed plateau.
