Fuzzy logics are many-valued logics that are well suited to reasoning in the context of vagueness. They provide the basis for the wider field of Fuzzy Logic, encompassing diverse areas such as fuzzy control, fuzzy

Databases, and fuzzy mathematics. This book provides an accessible and up-to-date introduction to this fast-growing and increasingly popular area. It focuses in particular on the development and applications of "proof-theoretic" presentations of fuzzy logics; the result of more than ten years of intensive work by researchers in the area, including the authors. In addition to providing alternative

elegant presentations
of fuzzy logics, proof-

useful for addressing theoretical problems

place fuzzy logics in

the broader

landscape of non-

Philosophy. The book
builds methodically
from the semantic
origins of fuzzy logics

systems, introducing
both theoretical and
practical applications
of these

The Legend of the Mango Aklan is a
province in the island of Panay in central Philippines. One of its major fruit produce is the sweetly delicious mango, or mangga in Filipino. And so it goes that the Aklanons have a story about the first mango.
In times gone by,
there lived a couple

named Daeogdog and Mabuot. They had a beautiful daughter
called Aganhon.

Aganhon, whose name means
morning, was so much loved for she had a golden heart.
She was very helpful
to allher parents, the old, the sick, and the children. In the olden days, parents chose

the person that their child would marry. And so, Daeogdog had picked Maeopig, the most eligible young man in the village, to be Aganhon's husband. But Aganhon did not want to marry Maeopig, or any other man just yet. All she wanted to do was carry on with helping her parents and the village people. And she begged her father to let her do this.

Mabuot also pleaded with her husband not to marry their daughter to Maeopig. Daeogdog would not listen to them. He went on preparing for the wedding of Aganhon and Maeopig. The night before the wedding, Aganhon ran away.

The following day,
Daeogdog and Mabuot, with the help
of their neighbors,
went to look for Aganhon. Alas, they found her in the forest lying in the
mossy floor, lifeless.
A tiny bite-like wound
at the back of her left heel that was swollen

indicated that a snake had bit her and its poisonous venom caused her death.

Aganhon was buried in the riverbank.

When her parents visited her grave the following morning, they found a huge tree laden with golden heart-shaped fruits.

softly said. They tasted the fruit and it was delectable.

Sweet, Mabuot told
her husband, just like our daughter.

Mabuot visited their daughters grave
every morning. Each day that they came,
they would greet
